

If you do not do nothing, this will be the lifeline of the community and the only hope the hope that our youth can look for.

MISSION STATEMENT

“The core of our mission seeks to make religious, community and the offenders, ex-offenders, a core family again, using moral community values, while developing the mind of former offers and correcting our own. We are committed to assisting ex-offenders in areas possible to correct the problems by faith”

COMMITTEE FOR EX- OFFENDERS EQUALITY

“A BALANCE FOR VICTIMS & COMMUNITY EQUALITY”

BENEFIT OF JOINING

- One voice to all programs, services, and other opportunities, for growth and reintegration back into community.
- Support in restoring faith in corrections, while serving to reducing recidivism activities within our communities.
- Connect to a network or supportive services, for the wholesome and self will to restore the victim(s) and communities.

The goal is to serve and support all groups. Understanding that together we can change our community. One person (at a time) using the core values of love, truth, peace, freedom & Justice. Connecting those core to Family values and faith.

Prayer is the central thing that make us change. Whether you are of faith or not, that inner feeling of knowing that someone care is the answer to 99% of the problems. Our programs seek to be your hope for that next step in life. Remember family wait, but life is only in your hands for true change. Let us, a team serve, watch, and serve those behind you!!!!!!!
